

GREEN BLACKBOARDS BANNED.
SEATTLE, Wash., April 2.—Green "blackboards" in Seattle schools must go. They cause eyestrain, according to W. J. Santmyer, member of the city school board.

"The so-called 'blackboards' are the wrong color," says Santmyer. "They should be black instead of green."

BOOKBINDERS DENY THEY'LL AID DEBS

If Eugene V. Debs calls on organized labor to strike in his behalf when he is taken to prison, he will be without the aid of the Local Union No. 4, International Brotherhood of Bookbinders.

Meeting in Typographical Temple, 423 G street northwest, the union adopted resolutions denying the truth of the claim of Debs that he has the promise of every labor organization in the United States to strike in case he goes to prison.

FRAT TO GIVE RECEPTION.

Members of Delta Delta Delta Fraternity will give a reception at the College Woman's Club, 1822 I street, this evening at 8 o'clock in honor of Miss R. Louise Fitch, national president of Delta Delta Delta. Miss Fitch, sister of the late George Fitch, the humorist, is in Washington a few days en route to her home on the Pacific coast. She has recently returned from France, where she was sent by the Y. W. C. A. for special work in connection with women employed in factories, etc.

Clear the Skin

A beautiful complexion is the outward mark of good blood and a healthy body. When the stomach, liver and blood are in good order, the skin is clear and lovely. Unsightly blotches, pimples, eruptions and sallowness show the need of Beecham's Pills to stimulate and regulate the vital organs and improve the circulation. Good health and better looks soon follow the use of

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

Lord and Lady Reading to Spend Week-End in New York—Rianos Feted. Miss Violetta Mercer Weds Dr. Marbury.

THE British Ambassador and the Countess of Reading, who spent the last week-end in New York, will return to New York on Friday to remain until Sunday. On Saturday evening Lord Reading, who in his capacity as lord chief justice of England is head of the British judiciary system, will be the honor guest at a banquet to be given at the Waldorf by the New York Bar Association in behalf of the American judiciary and bar.

Guests at Dinner.

The Spanish ambassador and Mme. de Riano were the honor guests at a dinner which Mr. and Mrs. Walter Denegre gave last evening.

The Japanese ambassador, Viscount Ishii, entertained a party of Japanese commercial agents at luncheon at the embassy yesterday, after which the commission went to New York. The members of the commission are silk merchants who are in this country to make observations on silk manufacture.

Mrs. Glass Not at Home Today.

Mrs. Glass, wife of the Secretary of the Treasury, will not be at home this afternoon.

Miss Augusta Glass is at her home in Lynchburg, Va., for a ten days' visit.

A wedding which will unite two families long prominent in Maryland and the District will be solemnized this afternoon, when Miss Violetta Mercer, daughter of Mrs. Carroll Mercer, will become the bride of Dr. William B. Marbury, Dr. Marbury is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Marbury, of Upper Marlboro, Prince George's county, Md., and a nephew of Mrs. Charles Marbury, of Washington. His bride is the daughter of the late Major Carroll Mercer, a great-granddaughter of the late Judge and Mrs. William T. Carroll and a great-niece of the late Countess Esterhazy and Mrs. Dix Bolles.

The ceremony, which will be quite simple, will take place at 4 o'clock at the home of Horace Seymour, third secretary of the British embassy, and Mrs. Seymour. Only members of the two families and a few close friends will be present. An informal reception will follow. There will be no elaborate decorations, but Mrs. Seymour's charming drawing room is in bloom with spring flowers. Easter lilies have been placed about the spot where the bride couple will stand to give a churchly effect.

The Rev. Roland Cotton Smith will officiate and Dr. Marbury will have Dr. Charles Crawford as his best man. Miss Mercer, who will be given in marriage by Major Samuel A. Tucker, U. S. A., will have her sister, Miss Lucy Page Mercer, as her maid of honor and only attendant. The bride will wear a simple but very lovely gown of rare old point lace, an heirloom in the family, made over a slip of Georgette crepe. Her veil is of tulle, with a garniture of lace, and she will carry a cluster of gardenias. Dr. Marbury, who has just been released from the medical corps, U. S. A., will be uniform.

The maid of honor's frock is of mauve chiffon and silver, with panels of heavy silk. With it she will wear a hat of mauve Georgette with a crown of silver net. Mrs. Mercer's costume is of handsome black lace, combined with white. She and Mrs. Marbury, mother of Dr. Marbury, will receive with the bride party. Mr. and Mrs. Marbury have come from Upper Marlboro to attend the wedding, and relatives of both bride and bridegroom from out of town will be present. Among those who are in Washington for the occasion are several members of Mrs. Mercer's family from North Carolina.

Dr. Marbury and his bride will spend their honeymoon motoring, and on its completion they will return to Washington to make their home. He has gone into the practice of medicine with Dr. James F. Mitchell. Dr. Marbury has recently returned to this country from service in France with the American expeditionary force, and it was there that he first met his bride. Miss Mercer spent nearly three years overseas working with the Red Cross.

Entertainments at Luncheon.

The charge d'affaires of the Panama legation, Don J. E. Lefevre, entertained an interesting company at a luncheon today at the Shoreham in compliment to Henry F. Fletcher, the American ambassador to Mexico. Among those asked to meet Mr. Fletcher were Boaz Long, American minister to Salvador and acting chief of the division of Mexican affairs of the State Department; Hallett Johnson, acting chief of the Latin-American division; Julius Lay, foreign trade adviser of the department; Richard P. Hays, chief of the Bureau of Citizenship; Don Enrique Genzler, attaché of the legation of Panama, and several others.

Has Guest From Wilmington.

Mrs. Thomas Hardy Tallaferra has as her guest for a few days her cousin, Mrs. Samuel Candy Rumford, of Wilmington, Del. Yesterday Mrs. Tallaferra entertained informally at luncheon for Mrs. Rumford, her guests including Mrs. A. Mitchell Palmer, Mrs. Hughes Oliphant, Mrs. D. Buchanan Merryman, Mrs. Charles Marbury, Mrs. William Eches Pendlall, and Miss Mary Forman Day, of Maryland.

Washington society will be greatly interested in the announcement of the engagement of Miss Eleanor Kinzie, of Charleston, S. C., to Lieut. Edward Alexander Mitchell, U. S. N., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Mitchell, of this city. No date has been set for the wedding.

Col. Walter Sturgill, U. S. A., was in command of the last indoor ride of this season, given at the Riding and Hunt Club last evening. The first division was led by Miss Ruth Hitchcock and Colonel George and the second division by Mrs. Sturgill and Lieutenant Peters.

Dancing followed the drill, and a buffet supper was served, with Mrs. George Eble and Mrs. Thomas F. Logan as hostesses. Among those who took part in the last evening's dance were William Phelps Eno, president of the club, and his niece, Miss Eno; Mrs. Charles Patterson, Mrs. George Becker, Mrs. W. Sinclair Bowen, Mrs. Thomas F. Logan, Mrs. Debra Hildgett, Miss Helen Hildgett, and their guest, Miss Annette Sheldon, of Detroit; Miss Ethel MacMurray, Miss Gertrude Virginia Drain, Miss Fitcher, Miss Everett, Miss Carolyn Nash, Miss Elizabeth Walmaley, Miss Margaret Sutherland, Miss Wahl, Major Rhodes, Captain Pendleton, Captain Aldrich, Captain Harris, Captain Antonovitch, Captain Adams, Lieut. M. S. Walsh, Lieut. W. W. Sreschakoff, and Emil Fontanel.

Mrs. George W. Vanderbilt, who spent the greater part of the last winter in New York, has leased an apartment at 908 Fifth avenue, New York. Her Washington residence is occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Meyer, Jr.

Edouard de Billy in New York. Edouard de Billy, acting French high commissioner, is spending a few days in New York at the Vanderbilt.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brown, of New York, yesterday announced the engagement of Miss Adele Quartley Brown, their daughter, to Lieut. Comdr. Robert Abernethy Lovett, U. S. N., son of Judge and Mrs. Robert Scott Lovett, of New York and Washington. The wedding will take place on the afternoon of April 19 in the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Peter Cooper Bryce, eldest sister of Miss Brown, who was Miss Angelica Brown before her marriage, will be the bride's only attendant.

Lieutenant Commander Lovett, who returned recently from overseas and has just received his honorable discharge, was graduated from Yale in 1915. He enlisted in the naval aviation service and was abroad for more than a year. He advanced rapidly, reting with the rank of lieutenant commander.

Judge and Mrs. Lovett have lived in Washington for the last two years since he was made director of the division of additions and betterments under the United States Railroad Administration.

Miss Mary Sue Donaldson will leave town on Monday for a two months visit South, spending most of her time in her old home in South Carolina. Miss Elizabeth Rumbough, who was to have accompanied Miss Donaldson for a stay of two weeks, has changed her plans owing to the continued illness of her sister, Mrs.

William W. West, who has been in a hospital for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Stokes, Jr., who are in New York, where they have an apartment, will give a theater party for sixteen friends tomorrow night.

Cards Out For Wedding.

Cards have been sent out by Mr. and Mrs. H. T. DeGroot for the marriage next Wednesday of their daughter, Miss Elsie P. DeGroot, to Cecil J. Ketner. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Lewis E. Pordum at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at Ingram Memorial Church. The bride couple will leave the same afternoon for a honeymoon trip North Mr. Ketner was recently discharged from the Engineer Corps, U. S. A., at Fort Benjamin Harrison.

Boxholders at Benefit.

The boxholders for the concert tomorrow afternoon at the National Theater, arranged under the auspices of Trinity College, for the benefit of the devastated convents of the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur, Belgium, include the apostolic delegate, the members of the staff of the Belgian legation, Miss Mabel Boardman, the alumnae of Trinity College, Mrs. James Lansburgh, and several other patrons. Seniors in caps and gowns will act as ushers.

Harold Walker entertained a party of six men at luncheon at the Cafe St. Marks yesterday.
